

Meet a real author...

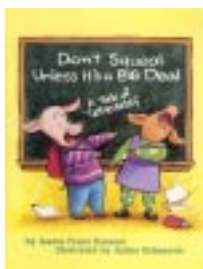

Jeanie Franz Ransom

...in 2 special programs

Local author Jeanie Franz Ransom offers 2 special entertaining and educational programs for children and their families. You can learn what happens when you tattletale and why Grandmas know how to be such special people!

Jeanie grew up in West County and now lives in O'Fallon with her husband, 3 sons, and a dog. Jeanie has known she wanted to be a writer since age 8 when her teacher, Mrs. Schardt, read her poem to the entire third grade!

She is the author of 5 children's books and enjoys sharing her craft and the message of her books with families. Her newest book Don't Squeal Unless It's a Big Deal helps kids learn when to talk to each other, and when to call in the grownups.

In her book Grandma U, Jeanie reveals to kids how grandmas know all of the things that grandmas are supposed to do like bake cookies, hold babies, play games, go on trips, be a soccer grandma and find out about "the most important thing of all!"

GRANDMA U

In this entertaining program, the author reveals the secret of why grandmas are so great and how they learn to be grandmas! Bring your grandma!

Kathryn Linnemann Branch Library

2323 Elm Street; St. Charles 63301

Wednesday, September 20 7:00 pm

Ages 3-6 Families Welcome Limit 65

Please call 723-0232 to register.

DON'T SQUEAL UNLESS IT'S A BIG DEAL

Do you know any tattletales? Listen as the author shares her newest book.

Kisker Road Branch Library

1000 Kisker Road; St. Charles 63304

Tuesday, September 26 3:00 pm

Grades K-3 Parents Welcome Limit 75

Please call 926-READ to register.